Uniforms

Uniform for CASA

The creation of uniforms for the Culinarium Art Centre (CASA) in Baku was carried out with special attention to quality and details. We paid close attention to the selection of materials to ensure the comfort and durability of the uniforms.

The fabrics used in making the uniforms were carefully chosen for their strength, ease of care, and comfort during wear. This enables the staff at the Culinarium Art Centre to feel comfortable and confident while working.

Moreover, we paid special attention to details such as embroidering logos and names on the uniforms. This gives a professional appearance, emphasizing the corporate style of CASA, enhancing recognition and unity in the appearance of the staff.

Our goal was not only to create stylish and aesthetically pleasing uniforms but also to ensure functionality and comfort for the Culinarium Art Centre personnel.

Uniform for CASA

We created a uniform that stands as a work of art, not merely for practical use but also as a display item. The emphasis was placed on creating a uniform that not only represents the brand's identity but also exudes an artistic and visually captivating quality.

In the process, we paid meticulous attention to every aspect of the uniform's design and production. The materials chosen were of the highest quality, ensuring durability and comfort for the wearers. Additionally, the design elements were meticulously curated to reflect the brand's aesthetics while ensuring that the uniform not only served its functional purpose but also became an exquisite visual representation of the brand when displayed in a showcase or on mannequins.

Uniform for World skills

For World Skills, we produced a comprehensive uniform set that includes a t-shirt, trousers, and a hooded jacket designed specifically for chefs. The focus on quality was paramount throughout the creation of this professional attire.

The materials used in crafting the uniform were selected for their exceptional quality, taking into account their durability and suitability for the demanding environment of a kitchen. The fabric was chosen to be breathable, durable, and easy to maintain, ensuring utmost comfort and convenience for the chefs.

Special attention was given to the design and construction of the uniform. The stitching and overall manufacturing process were meticulously executed to meet high-quality standards. Each garment, whether it was the t-shirt, trousers, or hooded jacket, was tailored to withstand the rigors of a culinary setting while providing the chefs with a full range of motion and comfort during their work.

Furthermore, the design of the uniform aimed not only to meet practical needs but also to represent the brand's identity. Embellishments such as the brand logo or specific emblems were incorporated with precision, adding a touch of sophistication to the overall appearance.

Special projects

National woman dress

For the Ritz-Carlton Baku, we tailored traditional Azerbaijani woman attire to welcome guests at the reception. The design process was meticulous and focused on achieving the highest quality in craftsmanship and aesthetics.

The national patterns and motifs were initially embroidered by machine, ensuring precise and accurate replication of traditional designs. Subsequently, the garments were meticulously hand-finished, accentuated with hand-sewn beads and other embellishments to enhance the overall appearance.

In the selection of materials, we prioritized the finest quality fabrics and threads to ensure both the durability and authenticity of the attire. The handmade elements and intricate detailing required a high level of expertise and precision to create a stunning and authentic representation of Azerbaijani traditional dress.

Our objective was to not only replicate the aesthetic beauty of the traditional dress but also to guarantee the longevity and durability of the attire. Each piece was crafted with utmost care and attention to detail, ensuring that the attire not only looked exquisite but also upheld the highest standards of quality and durability, symbolizing the rich cultural heritage to greet and honor guests at the Ritz-Carlton Baku.

National man dress

For the Ritz-Carlton Baku, we tailored a robe for the pianist, drawing inspiration from traditional Azerbaijani motifs. Crafting this garment involved collaborating with a specialist in traditional patterns and motifs.

The intricate patterns and national motifs were initially embroidered by machine, ensuring precision and accuracy in replicating the traditional designs. Following this, each detail was meticulously refined by hand, involving the addition of hand-sewn beads and other adornments along the edges of the robe.

We placed immense emphasis on the quality of materials used in this creation. Only the finest fabrics and threads were selected to ensure not only the authenticity of the design but also the durability and longevity of the robe. The handcrafted elements and meticulous detailing required a high level of expertise to capture the essence of Azerbaijani tradition while meeting the highest standards of quality.

Uniform for Four Seasons Baku

For Four Seasons Baku, in collaboration with F1, we tailored a tailcoat for the doorman along with a traditional top hat. As part of this project, the tailcoat features logos in the form of chevrons sewn onto the coat, representing both F1 sponsors and key participants such as Aston Martin, Ferrari, and others.

The creation of the tailcoat and top hat was a dedicated endeavor focusing on exceptional quality at every stage. The selection of materials was crucial, ensuring the use of top-grade fabrics and threads to guarantee durability, comfort, and an elegant appearance.

Each detail of the tailcoat, especially the incorporation of logos in the form of chevrons, was carefully executed with precision. The logos were seamlessly integrated into the design, emphasizing not only the participation of renowned brands but also contributing to the overall aesthetic appeal of the doorman's uniform.

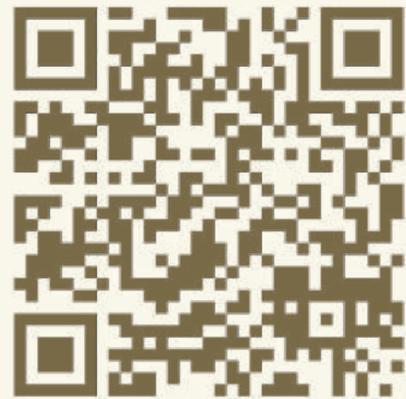

The tailcoat and top hat underwent a meticulous crafting process, ensuring that every stitch and adornment met the highest standards of quality. The aim was not only to create a uniform that represents the partnership with F1 but also to ensure that it embodies the utmost quality, sophistication, and endurance, embodying the prestigious Four Seasons brand and the excitement of F1 in every aspect of its design and construction.
